TUESDAY EVENING JULY 25, 1893

SMALLEST BIRDS At IVE -Two of the small est tirds in the world, and the only two known to be in captivity, have been attracting a great deal of attention in the window of F. H. Underhill, on Bloadway, says the ew York Herald. They are known as the reduce moses, or "fly enters," and were brought to this country from Cuba by Senor Publicus. He controls the circus privileges of their land and is familiarly known as the

"Lie to tarnum."

The birds are about one-third smaller than the manning birds of this country, to which family they belong. Being so diminutive and "lying with remarkable swiftness, it is almost only by with remarkable swiftness, it is almost impossible to catch them, and it was only by an accident that these specimens were captured. A laborer discovered the nest while the birds were fledglings, and he placed a lationless eage over the nest, and kept it there until the birds were strong enough to fly. They are fied on honey diluted with water, and in order to reach this the little creatures keep themselves stationary in the air by the highling-like motion of their wings and plange their long narrow bills repeatedly into the vossels. Jinnay Wakeley's offer of $50 for the pair has been refused.

A Sensational Story has attracted attention lately but as a matter of fact the public has also de-voted time to things substantial, judging by the unprecedented sale of the Gail Borden Eagle Brand Condensed Milk. Unequalled as a food for infants. Sold by Grocers and Druggists.
